Episode 501 – The Kids are Alright
Tennessee

1. Which birthday gift later became the basis of Jim and Gayle Tanner’s agricultural business? __________________________________________________________.

2. What’s the difference between Saanen and Nubian goats?
   __________________________________________________________
   __________________________________________________________
   __________________________________________________________
   __________________________________________________________.

3. Describe the process of creating farmstead cheese:
   __________________________________________________________
   __________________________________________________________
   __________________________________________________________
   __________________________________________________________.

4. The cheese studio machinery pasteurizes more than __________________ of goat milk at a time.

5. How will the “cheese cave” help the Tanner’s create a better cheese product?
   __________________________________________________________
   __________________________________________________________
   __________________________________________________________
   __________________________________________________________.

Website resources:
America’s Heartland: http://americasheartland.org/episodes/episode_501/the_kids_are_alright.htm#
Bonnie Blues Farm: http://bonniebluefarm.com