

Episode 219 – H₂O Harvest

Answer Key

1. Alfalfa sprouts.
2. They tapped a geothermal energy source of hot water and steam.
3. The neighbors thought an underground volcano was going to erupt.
4. The brothers used to steam to heat the greenhouses and grow their tomatoes.
5. Greenhouses typically use propane or gas to keep the temperatures high.

Website resources:

America's Heartland: http://americasheartland.org/episodes/episode_219/H2O.html#

The California Energy Commission: <http://www.energy.ca.gov/geothermal/>