

americasheartland.org

Answer Key

Episode 107 – To the Highest Bidder

1. Torrington, Wyoming
2. to move large amounts of product and get the best price quickly
3. cattle
4. The brothers began working for their father and became the sole owners of the auction house.
5. 300,000
Wyoming and eight other
6. World Livestock Auctioneering Championship
7. voice clarity, bid taking ability, speed, knowing the cattle market moment by moment
8. Cattle come off the trucks and are directed into pens, a pen of cattle pass as a group into the suction arena, the auctioneer must catch very slight motions by bidders, the cattle sold go back into pens and then are trucked to their buyers.
9. fatigue, sore throat, head colds and that the cattle auction is going high tech.

© 2008, KVIE and the American Farm Bureau Foundation for Agriculture