

Name _____ Student Study Guide

Episode 206 – Reap the Wild Wind
Wyoming

1. Why would a farmer, like Ralph Brokow, allow wind companies to build turbines on his land?

2. Wind machines cover less than _____ percent of Ian Anderson’s four thousand acres planted in wheat, barley and safflower.

3. What does it mean for an electric meter to run “backwards?”

4. What are energy experts doing at the Western Stock Show in Denver to promote wind energy?

5. Describe a problem with wind energy:

Website resources:

America’s Heartland: http://www.americasheartland.org/episodes/episode_206/wild_wind.htm#

Next Era Energy: www.FPLEnergy.com

